

Leap into a Good Read on February 29th! Affliction, Romantic Suspense with a Touch of Magic

Marilee Brothers announces the release of her forthcoming new adult romantic suspense novel, Affliction.

Twenty-two year old Honor Melanie (Mel) Sullivan has an affliction. Due to childhood trauma and inappropriate social behavior, she is diagnosed with Aspergers, a form of autism. But, Mel knows Aspergers is not her true affliction. She prefers not to gaze into a person's eyes because she is a soul reader, and what she sees can be frightening. It can also get Mel into trouble.

After a brush with the law, Mel leaves her family home in Southern California and travels to Oregon where she meets Harley-Davidson riding William McCarty (Billy the Kid) and stumbles upon a human trafficking/baby-selling scheme involving a foreign girl from Kazakhstan, and others. Even though Mel's life is in danger, she won't stop until she finds the answers that will help those unable to help themselves.

Marilee Brothers is an award-winning author of nine books. Here's what reviewers have said about her books:

“Loved her series. Fun read. Can't wait for the next book.”

“I read this book in a day. The dialogue is brilliantly witty and the storytelling is fast-paced. If you need something light and genuinely funny, this definitely brightened up a dull Sunday.”

“Laugh-out-loud characters and a storyline that's fun to read. Kudos!

“Marilee Brothers has artfully crafted a romantic suspense that's also a blend of comedy and mystery and she's done it well.”

“I stayed up late at night to finish this engrossing book and recommend it thoroughly!

Book trailer:

<https://youtu.be/giM2Zq1XVdI>

About the book:

Affliction by Marilee Brothers

ISBN: Digital- 978-1-5092-0621-6; Print – 978-1-5092-0620-9

Publisher: Wild Rose Press

Publish date: February 29, 2016

Page count: 340

Price: Digital - $5.99; Print - $16.99

About the author:

Marilee Brothers is a former teacher, coach, counselor and the author of nine books. Marilee and her husband are the parents of three grown sons and live in central Washington State. After writing six young adult books, Marilee is once again writing romantic suspense for the adult market. She loves hearing from people who have read her books.

Feel free to contact Marilee at <http://www.marileebrothers.com> and sign up for her newsletter The Obsessive Page Turner. Her author page on Facebook is: www.facebook.com/marilee.author and she occasionally tweets @MarileeB.

Marilee's blog is Book Blather, <http://bookblatherblog.blogspot.com> where she features aspiring and published authors as well as some tidbits of her own.

Contact:

Marilee Brothers, bmerleeb@gmail.com , www.marileebrothers.com